SUBJECT: Termination of Temporary Relocation – Bahrain

The Department of Defense terminates the temporary relocation for Eligible Family Members (EFMs) and Non-Emergency Essential (NEE) personnel from Bahrain, effective immediately.

However, the Central Command has reviewed the latest intelligence community assessment, and the security that led to the Temporary Relocation on July 7, 2004, has not changed at this time. Tour lengths in Bahrain will remain unchanged and will be addressed in a future memorandum.

EFMS and NEE personnel who departed under the temporary relocation, or who interrupted travel under the Stop Movement, are ordered to move to a designated place/final safe haven in accordance with Chapter 6 of the JFTR for military dependents. Eligible DoD civilians and EFMs will be processed as indicated in Chapter 12 and Appendix I of the JTR Volume 2.

To allow time to make transportation arrangements, safe haven benefits will terminate effective 10 days from the date of this memorandum.
